Furniture of The Tabernacle-The Golden Incense Altar

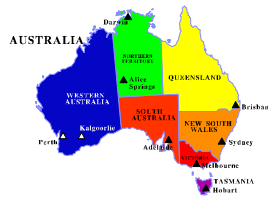

The High Priest burnt "Fragrant Incense" on The Altar, every morning and every evening. The High Priest must burn Incense when He lights the Lamps at twilight, so that incense will burn regularly before The Lord. Non other than the correct Incense was to be offered. No other "offerings" were to be offered on this altar. Once a year The High Priest offered an annual "Atonement" sacrifice with the blood of the annual Sin Offering, and placed some blood on the Altars Horns. Coals were taken from the bronze altar and placed on the top of the Incense altar to burn "Incense" No fire came into contact with the Altar. The Incense altar speaks of prayer to God. The incense fragrance rises and fills The Holy Place. This was a sweet aroma to God.
